

Pre-K - Grade 12 ASD Counseling Mission

The mission of the American School of Doha's comprehensive school counseling program is to support all students in acquiring the necessary skills, knowledge and understanding in the personal/social, academic, career, and global perspective domains in order to learn and to become positive, active global citizens.

ASD Counseling Vision

Personal/Social, Academic, Career and Global Perspective learning is ... where learning is fun
where learning is diverse where learning is creative where learning is proactive where learning is authentic where learning is reflective where learning is contextual where learning is data-driven where learning is empowering where learning is collaborative where learning is developmental where learning is solution focused

Essential Agreements for Counseling

ASD's school counselors will:

Be student-centered and engage students in guidance lessons and activities based on the International Model for School Counselors, which incorporates the personal, academic, social and career domains. (adapted from the ASCA National Model).

Include learning that extends beyond the walls and that allows students to develop lifelong skills that can assist them in becoming positive, active global citizens.

Address diversity when planning and implementing the comprehensive counseling program.

Promote collaboration among the school counselors, administration, and teachers in order to better support students and coordinate with parents and the community effectively.

Use data to drive the comprehensive school counseling program development and evaluation, and actively monitor student results.

Deliver services through school guidance curriculum, individual student planning, responsive services, and system support.

Abide by the professional school counseling ethics as advocated by the American School Counseling Association (ASCA).

Continue to develop School Counselor Competencies as described by the ASCA.

Engage in lifelong learning and participate in ongoing professional development and growth.

Support the American School of Doha's mission and vision through the comprehensive counseling program.

Live out the ASD values of respect, honesty, responsibility, and compassion.
